Program: A Conversation with State Rep. Dan Moul

A lifelong resident of Adams County, Moul is a graduate of New Oxford High School and studied finance at York College. Moul and his wife Lori live in Conewago Township with their children, Alexis and Emily. Dan Moul was elected to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives in 2006, representing the 91st District. Moul spent the previous 20-years as owner operator of his own real estate management and renovation business. Previously he worked in the sales division of Hanover's Utz Quality Foods.

The 91st district covers the southern half of Adams County consisting of the townships of Conewago, Cumberland, Franklin, Freedom, Germany, Hamiltonban, Highland, Liberty, Mount Joy, Mount Pleasant, Straban and Union and the boroughs of Arendtsville, Bonneauville, Carroll Valley, Fairfield, Gettysburg, Littlestown and McSherrystown, and part of Franklin County consisting of the townships of Guilford and Quincy.
